Cabins

Several A-frame cabins and one deluxe cabin are available at this time. A-frames have at least 2 queen beds and 1 cot; some have bunk beds as well. They have no kitchen and 1 bathroom (bathhouse is also available for cabin dwellers). The deluxe cabin has 4 queen beds (and maybe more beds as well) and a kitchen. You must reserve and pay for cabins through Echo Basin's website: <http://www.echobasin.com/Home.aspx> Go to the "Contact Us" page and fill out the form. Use the group name "Dances of Universal Peace" to get our discount rate. The website has photos of all cabins as well. The A-frames closest to the tent site are 3, 8, 4, 5.

RVs with Hookups

Echo Basin has a number of RV spaces; we get a discount on these as well, so use the group name "Dances of Universal Peace" when making your reservation with Echo Basin.

Other bits

We will bring in a few portapotties. Dogs must be leashed or restrained. Quiet hours are 10 pm to 7 am, Echo Basin's rules.
